It was a grand thing for this community that such an enterprising firm as S. J. The furor of enthusiasm over it has boomed their business, as the demand for it is immense. They give free trial bottles to sufferers, and positively guarantee it to cure Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, and all Throat and Lung Troubles. A trial proves its merit. Price 50c. and $1.00

Astounded The Editor.

Editor S. A. Brown, of the Bennettsville, S. C., was once immensely surprised. "Through long suffering from Dyspepsia," he writes, "my wife was greatly run down. She had no strength or vigor and suffered great distress from her stomach, but she tried Electric Bitters which helped her at once, and, after using four bottles, she is entirely well, can eat anything. It's a grand tonic, and its gentle laxative qualities are splendid for torpid liver." For indigestion, loss of Appetite, Stomach and Liver troubles it's a positive, guaranteed cure. THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1900.
FLANIGAN IN A NEW ROLE.

P. L. Flanigan, since his descent from an honorable position as a man and citizen to be a servant to Bill Stewart and Charley Wallace, has been engaged in making known to the people, through the Gazette, the level he occupies while serving these political toughs. When his letters from Chicago are taken into the light and read, it is evident he would do better to stick to his wool and lambs than he is doing as a Mark Hanna politician.
While engaged in legitimate business he had the respect of the people, but his late political associations have had a demoralizing effect upon him, and he is out as a creature of Stewart and Wallace, making himself ridiculous as an off-color politician.
He is at work for those who would shear him closer, were it to their interest to do so, than he has thought at any time of shearing an old ewe. The JOURNAL has looked upon Mr. Flanigan's work at Chicago as a result of an earnest and generous nature, when under a controlling influence, but his late expressions, given through the Gazette, have the appearance of deliberation and intent.
Should it be the wish of Mr. Newlands, "according to published rates to subsidize the syndicate press at so much per sheet," to inform the people upon what he is doing as their representative in Congress, is it anybody's business except his when he is paying his money to the press of the State at advertised rates to inform the people about his work in Congress?
Bill Stewart or J. P. Jones have not had any occasion to inform the people about what they were doing for them in Congress, and it is very probable that the railroad attorney, about whose election Mr. Flanigan is so exercised, would be equally slow as the railroad Senators named about spending money to inform the people about what he was doing in Congress to aid them.
The syndicate press of the State has published such special information about the work of Mr. Newlands in Congress as was furnished for publication, not a word of which was uttered against the people, but each word that was published, and much more, was sent forth on its mission in their behalf.
There is not a yea or nay by Newlands while in Congress that was not made in favor of the people. There has not been a vote recorded, or given by him that in any particular favored trusts or imperialism in any form, and the most conclusive argument that has been made in Congress in favor of silver was made last winter by him when the gold standard bill was before the house on its passage. In it possible, and speak the truth for Bill Stewart whose servant Mr. Flanigan is, to say to the people of the State that his votes on political or general questions have been favorable to them.
It may be Flanigan is not aware that the syndicate press, as he is pleased to term a majority of the press in the State, has arrived at an opinion that the best thing that could happen to Nevada is a removal for all time from the politics of the State of Bill Stewart, Charley Wallace and the gangs in the Republican and Democratic parties who have served them to make the State a by-word because of the ignorance of its people and the low methods used in directing its politics.
Mr. Flanigan is a new servant on the Republican side who appears anxious to prove his loyalty to his new masters by covering himself with political filth furnished by the old members of the gang whose ways and methods are known, and for that reason are without power for evil. The press and people of Nevada have determined to be free from the yoke of one of the most wicked and debasing gangs in its work that it has been the misfortune of a commonwealth to have ruling it, and it is too late for a wool grower to come in from the hills to pull chestnuts for it, by abusing Newlands through the Gazette and calling a majority of the press in the State venal, syndicate and other pet names furnished by Stewart, Wallace and other members of the gang whose knowledge of such terms and their meaning derived from their use in gang work for a life time is large. There is not a self respecting man in the State who has seen the error of his ways upon mature thought who has not abandoned the few who remain to do mean and low political work for Stewart and Wallace. Flanigan's services in the work he has engaged in for that cause are more acceptable than they would otherwise

The College gridiron is presenting a lively appearance these afternoons.
Determined to do everything in their power to wipe out last Saturday's defeat, the collegians are turning out en masse to inspire the team by their presence and encouragement to greater effort. The players themselves are going into the game with renewed vigor, putting that life into their maneuvers that is necessary for a winning team. They have suffered a great loss in the inability of the regular backs to participate but are endeavoring to make up for it by increased energy and better team work.
Next Saturday's game cannot but be a fine contest. The Normals have a splendid team and will fight for every inch of ground to keep the prestige won by their gritty play against Stanford. No lover of good clean sport can afford to pass this game by. By coming none will be disappointed and besides their presence will certainly urge the boys to do their noblest.

Is not a Goldbug.
In a letter to the Virginia Chronicle, Herman Zogid, the well known mining man, declares himself in favor of a larger use of silver and, though a Republican, states that if a voter in Nevada, he would support Hon. Francis G. Newlands for reelection to Congress.

Given Notice to Quit.
George Wedekind gave notice yesterday to Charles Bell to cease work on the Reno Star mine. If the intruder does not pack up and get off the ground within a reasonable time he may find himself in an unpleasant predicament.

SHORT TERM REGENT.
The Elko Independent is doing yeoman's service for the fusion national and State ticket. W. W. Booher, the editor, is the nominee of the Democratic and Silver parties for the honorary position of Short-term University Regent.
Mr. Booher has had many years experience as principal of some of the largest public schools in the State, and is thoroughly qualified to take part in the conducting of the affairs of the highest educational institution in Nevada. He should at least receive the cordial support of every Democrat and Silver party man in the State.

Mr. FARRINGTON thinks that Mr.
Newlands' promotion to the Committee on Ways and Means means nothing to the people of Nevada. Does Mr. Farrington realize that such a position gives Mr. Newlands an influence of incalculable benefit to the people of this State? If he doesn't, he isn't able to realize anything.

THE Democrats and Silver party have exorcised Wallace. If the Republicans will do the same by voting against Farrington, we can free the State forever of corporation-boss rule.

AFTER listening to half a dozen Republican spell-binders, imported and otherwise, we are constrained to inquire if the only argument to be used this year is Hanna's sack.

THE REPUBLICAN spouters on the stamp are claiming five counties in the State for Farrington, but on the street they are only willing to bet on two.

P. L. FLANIGAN has a heavy contract on hand—to put Newlands out of the way this year and elect himself United States Senator in 1902.

NEWLANDS stands for home rule; Farrington for boss rule. Take your choice

Newlands' Meetings.

Mr. Newlands will speak at Verdi Thursday evening, November 1, and at Washoe, Friday, November 2. 3112

ADDRESS
BY HON. F. G.
NEWLANDS

Farrington's Charges
Refuted.

AN APPRECIATIVE AUDIENCE

Mr. Newlands Was Heartily Applauded—Music by Silver Quartette.

The largest audience that has assembled in Reno this campaign listened to Congressman Newlands' address in the opera house last night.

After music by the splendid Comstock Silver Quartette, Captain Cox introduced the speaker.

Mr. Newlands' talk was in marked contrast with the bombastic, surrilious spell-binding of his political opponent several evenings previous.

Being attacked, Mr. Newlands had but one course left him—defense.
Although he would much prefer to have devoted his address to discussion of national issues, he, instead, spoke for more than an hour upon his life and record. He told a plain, unvarnished tale, without resorting to tricks of eloquence or cheap gesticular ornamentation. Yet, the earnestness of the speaker and the desire on the part of the audience to learn the truth or fallacy of Mr. Farrington's charges, caused the vast audience to pay the closest attention, interrupting with frequent and hearty applause.

Mr. Newlands spoke first regarding the charge of non-residence. He said that when he came to Nevada twelve years ago, he sold his home in California and upon the two hundred acre tract he purchased at the edge of Reno he built a home, planted trees and vines and beautified his grounds.
This is the only home he owns, the "Cherry Chase palace" being termed a delusion and a snare, it not even being his own property.

Mr. Newlands said he was not a millionaire but wished he was. For a decade he managed the vast Sharon estate, which was largely invested in Nevada property. It was this duty which brought him here and caused him to take an interest in State development in order to aid in preventing the decline of Nevada prosperity.

In refutation of the charge made that he was not concerned in the welfare of the State, Mr. Newlands spoke of the large investments he had made in storage reservoir sites and the expensive irrigation surveys he had made, not as an investment to return large profit, but to turn over, even at a loss, to the people of the State should they see fit to enter into the project to reclaim their arid lands.

That Mr. Newlands was largely instrumental in the introduction of electric power upon the Comstock is a well known fact, but was nevertheless repeated. This is the greatest event that has ever taken place for the material development of Nevada's resources. It will not only serve to prolong mining operations upon the lode, but will largely augment the output per annum of the Comstock treasures. As this has proven successful there will doubtless be many other cheap power propositions entered into, which will vastly benefit many portions of the State.

Mr. Newlands spoke briefly of his record in regard to the silver question.
He was a delegate to the first Silver convention ever held and served as vice-chairman of the national silver committee. He has at all times labored for the larger use of the white metal.

Regarding the charges of political uncertainty the speaker reviewed the record of the parties. He was and is a Democrat, but as Harrison was nominated upon a bi-metallic platform and Grover Cleveland had surrendered unconditionally to the gold standard supporters, Mr. Newlands voted for the Republican nominee. Later, when the Republican party split itself by repudiating this plank in the platform, Mr. Newlands returned to the Democracy. Still later, as the Populist party was the only national organization favoring the more extensive use of silver, Mr. Newlands supported that party. And now when, with Bryan as a leader, the Democratic and Silver parties both favor free coinage of silver, the speaker has returned to his first love and will remain true to his party so long as his party is true to what should be the chief product of Nevada.

As to his record in Congress, Mr.
Newlands treated the Stewart-Wallace-Wren-Farrington document as absurd.
The allegation of absenteeism was explained by a comprehensive review of the modern operandi in the House. As member of such important committees as Foreign Affairs, Ways and Means, Banking and Currency, etc., Mr. Newlands felt that his influence upon legislation was much greater than perfunctory responses to roll calls on bills approved by these committees.

Having made complete refutation of all the allegations thrown out by Mr.
Farrington, the speaker discussed in eloquent manner some of the leading straight truths and splendidly rounded sentences called forth loud and frequent applause. It was the address of the campaign.

LITTLE LOCAL

The funeral of the late John Dixon will take place this afternoon from the family residence.

Two more matrimonial refugees from California were tied up by Rev.
Phelps yesterday.

Voters should remember that no other marking except by black pencils may be made upon ballots.

Last night was Halloween, and the small boys busied themselves packing everything movable to new quarters.

The Nevada Viavi Co. has headquarters at Mrs. S. E. Hunter's, Fourth street, near Chestnut. Miss Gertrude Bonham is agent.

Yesterday was the 36th anniversary of the entrance of Nevada into Statehood. The day was not celebrated to any extent in Reno.

Flanigan, the sheepman, is an excellent citizen. Flanigan, the chestnut-puller for Black Wallace, is a

The funeral of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Agosaya took place yesterday afternoon from the family residence on Commercial Row.

Our Franktown
Correspondent.

The farmers of this locality are satisfied with the result of the year's work.
They had good crops and stiff prices.

The son of Henry Heidenreich, who met with an accident several days ago, is improving. He will probably have no permanent soars.

Sam Longabaugh has 2,500 cords of wood near Franktown. He expects to move his mill a mile farther up the hill and will construct an addition to his dam.

The Sunset T. & T. company is now setting poles near the Crane ranch.
The line will be first run to Virginia and then back to Carson. Pleasant Valley, including Washoe and Franktown will be cut out and much disas-tisfaction is expressed.

Politics is the all absorbing topic of conversation. This neighborhood is almost unanimous for Bryan, Newlands, Jackson and the assembly ticket. Aspirants for county and township offices are rustling in a lively manner among the voters.

The Man Without a Vote.

C. O. Wallace, the man without a vote, isn't going to vote this year.

A couple of months ago he had the nerve to register here. As it is a notorious fact that his residence is Nevada City, California, where his family now reside and have for the past four or five years, a notice was yesterday served upon him that his right to vote here was challenged. If he attempts to vote here on November 8th, he will have to swear his vote in, and if he does so, he will be prosecuted for perjury.

It is also proposed in the near future to have him arrested under the vagrancy act, as he has no visible means of support, and to run him out of the State as a common hobo.

Will Dispatch by Wire.

The general office of the Nevada-California-Oregon railway company has installed an office of the California and Oregon telegraph company.
Under the new management trains on this road will no longer be run "by shadow and smoke."

Fusion Meetings.

Congressman Newlands will address a meeting in Verdi Thursday evening and Washoe Friday evening of this week. The famous Comstock Silver quartette will entertain both audiences.

N. J. Foxwell came down from Verdi last evening on the swing.

C. H. Fee and Max Fulcher of Fort

Mrs. E. L. Seitz returned yesterday

Patrick, the Espee Puller.

If Patrick L. Flanigan—consort of Black Wallace and high Chief Dis-barber of the Golden sack—expects to get the Espee nomination for a seat in the United States Senate, he must defeat Newlands for reelection. Witness his frenzied efforts in his $5,000 paper.

A Change of Management.

Frank Campbell, who was formerly employed by O. Novacovich but late of the Reno Mercantile Company, assumes charge of P. Andruccetti's and will doubtless do well in his new position.
